1. PURPOSE

This Directive:

1.1. Establishes the Pentagon Force Protection Agency (PFPA), pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Defense by reference (a), with the mission, responsibilities, functions, relationships, and authorities, as prescribed herein; and cancels reference (b).

1.2. Authorizes future consolidation, within the PFPA, of activities related to force protection, security, and law enforcement in the National Capital Region (NCR) under the cognizance of the Director of Administration and Management (DA&M).

2. APPLICABILITY

This Directive applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities and all other organizational entities within the Department of Defense (hereafter referred to collectively as "the DoD Components").

3. MISSION

The mission of the PFPA is to provide force protection, security, and law enforcement, as required for the people, facilities, infrastructure and other resources at the Pentagon Reservation and for DoD activities and DoD-occupied facilities not under the jurisdiction of a Military Department within the NCR (hereinafter referred to as "the Pentagon Facilities"). This mission includes addressing the full spectrum of threats to the Pentagon Facilities by utilizing a balanced strategy of prevention, preparedness, detection, response, crisis management, and consequence management. The PFPA will be the DoD focal point for coordination with other DoD Components, other Executive Departments and Agencies, and State and local authorities on matters involving force protection, security, and law enforcement activities that impact the Pentagon Facilities.

4. ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT

4.1. The PFPA is an agency of the Department of Defense, under the authority, direction, and control of the DA&M, in accordance with DoD Directive 5105.53 (reference (c)).

4.2. The PFPA shall consist of a Director and such subordinate organizational elements as are established by the Director within resources authorized by the Secretary of Defense.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES AND FUNCTIONS

The Director of the Pentagon Force Protection Agency shall provide the full range of services to protect personnel, facilities, infrastructure, and other resources at Pentagon Facilities, pursuant to the authorities of the Secretary of Defense under Section 2674 of reference (a), and those authorities delegated to the Secretary of Defense by the Administrator of General Services (GSA), under reference (d). In the exercise of these responsibilities, the Director, PFPA shall:

5.1. Organize, direct, and manage the PFFPA and all assigned resources.

5.2. Establish systems and processes to:

5.2.1. Enable responsive and complete command and control of assigned personnel, forces, and other resources.

5.2.2. Enable prompt notifications, alerts, and coordination of crisis and consequence management operations with the DoD Components, Federal Agencies, and local jurisdictions.

5.2.3. Enable prompt and effective communication concerning the Pentagon Facilities to ensure the safe movement, control, or evacuation of personnel.

5.3. Establish, manage, and continuously operate operations and communications centers capable of supporting the requirements of the PFFPA mission and the responsibilities of this Directive.

5.4. Provide security, in accordance with reference (e), and law enforcement for the Pentagon Facilities.

5.4.1. Enforce, and investigate violations of, Federal law and regulations. Ensure compliance with DoD policies pertaining to access, security, and emergency operations on Pentagon Facilities. Investigate allegations of misconduct by officers and other officials of the PFFPA. Allegations against senior officials will be handled in accordance with reference (f).

5.4.2. Control access to Pentagon Facilities and to special events when required.

5.4.3. Maintain a response force capable of providing security commensurate with the designated Force Protection Conditions (FPCONs).

5.4.4. Provide personal protection for the Secretary of Defense, other DoD officials, and official visitors and dignitaries doing business with the Department of Defense, as required. Assess threats made against members of the DoD workforce, including senior DoD officials.

5.4.5. Coordinate law enforcement actions pertaining to Pentagon Facilities as required with Federal and local jurisdictions.

5.4.6. Provide technical security countermeasure (TSCM) support for designated Pentagon Facilities and other locations when specified in accordance with reference (e). Serve as the single coordinating agency for TSCM activities performed by other DoD Components at the Pentagon Reservation.

5.4.7. Provide services to meet physical security support requirements including locking devices, alarm systems, closed circuit television, parking, personnel identification badges, and other support requirements for Pentagon Facilities.

5.4.8. Provide information security and industrial security support for designated Pentagon DoD Components and other locations when specified in accordance with references (e), (g), and (h).

5.5. Be responsible for antiterrorism/force protection for Pentagon Facilities and implement an antiterrorism/force protection program for those Pentagon Facilities in accordance with references (i), (j), and (k). In meeting this responsibility:

5.5.1. Coordinate with the Department of Defense and Federal intelligence organizations to obtain terrorism-related intelligence information. Maintain a current terrorist threat assessment relevant to Pentagon Facilities and distribute pertinent information to designated DoD Component officials.

5.5.2. Ensure compliance with vulnerability assessments for Pentagon Facilities, in coordination with reference (l), and take action to mitigate vulnerabilities. Report uncorrected vulnerabilities to the DA&M.

5.5.3. Implement antiterrorism, force protection, and terrorism consequence management plans at Pentagon Facilities. Ensure plans are integrated with plans for emergency actions by the National Military Command Center and the command centers of the Military Departments, interagency response plans, community operations planners, local jurisdictions, and where appropriate, other DoD Components.

5.5.4. Provide for antiterrorism/force protection training and exercises for personnel at Pentagon Facilities in accordance with reference (j).

5.5.5. Direct changes in FPCONs and ensure that such information is distributed uniformly to designated officials at Pentagon Facilities. Monitor implementation of FPCON measures and assist the DoD Components at the Pentagon Facilities.

5.6. Provide chemical, biological, and radiological (CBR) protection at Pentagon Facilities consistent with DoD policy, directives, and guidance concerning Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear, and Explosive (CBRNE) protection. In meeting this responsibility:

5.6.1. Provide scientific and technical advice on CBR threats, vulnerabilities, defenses, and consequence management pertinent to Pentagon Facilities to the DA&M and to the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of Defense, as required.

5.6.2. Implement CBR protection at Pentagon Facilities. Ensure protection and consequence management plans are integrated with plans for emergency actions by the National Military Command Center, command centers of the Military Services, interagency CBR response plans, continuity of operations planners, and where appropriate, other DoD Components. Also, ensure plans are coordinated with appropriate officials in jurisdictions where Pentagon Facilities are located.

5.6.3. Acquire, deploy, and maintain CBR equipment for detection and monitoring of CBR threats and protection of Pentagon Facilities personnel. Monitor and report incidents in accordance with plans. Provide for the modernization of CBR equipment to ensure capabilities are adequate to counter CBR threats.

5.6.4. Provide a CBR response force capable of a prompt response in support of First Responders to CBR incidents, including incidents involving the release of toxic substances. This force shall be capable of performing a full range of CBR operations including sampling, detection, identification, verification, mitigation, render safe, decontamination, advice and training on CBR matters, and operation and maintenance of CBR equipment. This full range of CBR operational capabilities will be exercised at least annually.

5.6.5. Prepare and conduct periodic tiered CBR training for the workforce, managers, and senior officials at Pentagon Facilities. The workforce, managers, and senior officials at Pentagon Facilities will exercise reaction to a CBR incident at least annually.

5.6.6. Coordinate with DoD medical activities to ensure that medical treatment plans include response to CBR attacks.

5.7. Provide security screening services for the operation of the Pentagon Remote Delivery Facility and its contingency mail facility. These services will include use of X-ray and other detection equipment to screen all packages and items delivered to designated Pentagon Facilities.

5.8. Operate the Pentagon Incinerator Plant to provide for the destruction of classified documents and other classified material in accordance with reference (m).

5.9. At facilities occupied by the DoD Components, but controlled by GSA, coordinate with GSA for the protection of DoD personnel. Where adequate force protection and security measures are not available from GSA and cannot be provided within the resources available to the PFPA, identify the affected organization to the DA&M so that resources can be made available, or organizations can be relocated to Pentagon Facilities where adequate protection is available.

5.10. Chair the Pentagon Security Advisory Group in accordance with reference (e).

5.11. Perform such other functions as may be assigned by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense, consistent with applicable laws and regulations.

6. RELATIONSHIPS

6.1. In the performance of assigned functions and responsibilities:

6.1.1. The Director, PFPA, shall coordinate and exchange information and advice with the DoD Components and other Federal, State and local agencies having collateral or related responsibilities.

6.1.2. The Heads of DoD Components shall coordinate with the Director, PFPA, as appropriate, on matters relating to PFPA operations, functions, and responsibilities.

6.2. Unless otherwise directed by the Secretary or the Deputy Secretary of Defense, the law enforcement responsibilities assigned by this Directive do not replace or supersede those responsibilities currently assigned to the Defense Criminal Investigative Service, the U.S. Army Criminal Investigative Command, the Naval Criminal Investigative Service, or the Air Force Office of Special Investigations, as the Defense Criminal Investigative Organizations, or the law enforcement and oversight authority of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense in accordance with references (n) and (o).

7. AUTHORITIES

The Director, PFPA, or designee, is specifically delegated authority to:

7.1. Act as the DoD principal liaison with the GSA and State and local authorities for force protection, security, and law enforcement at Pentagon Facilities in the NCR.

7.2. Communicate directly with the DoD Components and other Executive Departments and Agencies, as necessary, in carrying out assigned responsibilities and functions.

7.3. Obtain reports and information consistent with reference (p), as necessary, to carry out assigned functions.

7.4. Exercise the administrative authorities contained in enclosure 2.

8. ADMINISTRATION

8.1. The Director, PFPA, shall be selected by, and report to, the DA&M.

8.2. PFPA shall be authorized such personnel, facilities, funds, and other administrative support as the Secretary of Defense deems necessary.

8.3. The Military Departments shall assign military personnel to PFPA in accordance with approved authorizations and established procedures for assignment to joint duty.

8.4. Administrative support for PFPA shall be provided by the Washington Headquarters Services (WHS) under reference (q) or, as required, by selected DoD Components through inter-Service support agreements in accordance with reference (r).

9. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Directive is effective immediately.

Paul Wolfowitz
Deputy Secretary of Defense

DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

E2.1.1. Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Defense, and subject to the authority, direction, and control of the Director, Administration and Management, and in accordance with DoD policies, Directives, and Instructions, the Director, Pentagon Force Protection Agency (PFPA), or in the absence of the Director, the person acting for the Director, is hereby delegated authority as required in the administration and operation of the PFPA to:

E2.1.1.1. Maintain an official seal and attest to the authenticity of official records under that seal.

E2.1.1.2. Enforce regulatory procedures in accordance with Executive Order 10450, Executive Order 12333, and Executive Order 12968, and DoD Directive 5200.2, as appropriate:

E2.1.1.2.1. Designate any position in the PFPA as a "sensitive" position.

E2.1.1.2.2. Authorize, in case of emergency, the appointment of a person to a sensitive position in the PFPA for a limited period of time and for whom a full field investigation or other appropriate investigation, including the National Agency Check, has not been completed.

E2.1.1.2.3. Initiate personnel security investigations and, if necessary, in the interest of national security, suspend a security clearance for personnel assigned, detailed to, or employed by the PFPA. Any actions under this paragraph shall be taken in accordance with procedures prescribed in DoD 5200.2-R.

E2.1.1.3. Authorize and approve:

E2.1.1.3.1. Temporary duty travel for military personnel assigned or detailed to the PFPA in accordance with Joint Federal Travel Regulations (JFTR), Volume 1.

E2.1.1.3.2. Travel for PFPA civilian personnel in accordance with Joint Travel Regulations (JTR), Volume 2.

E2.1.1.3.3. Invitational travel to non-DoD personnel whose consultative, advisory, or other highly specialized technical services are required in a capacity that is directly related to, or in connection with, PFPA activities, in accordance with JTR, Volume 2.

E2.1.1.3.4. Overtime work for PFPA civilian personnel in accordance with 5 U.S.C., Chapter 55, Subchapter V, and applicable OPM regulations.

E2.1.1.4. Approve the expenditure of funds available for travel by military personnel assigned or detailed to the PFPA for expenses incident to attendance at meetings of technical, scientific, professional, or other similar organizations in such instances when the approval of the Secretary of Defense, or designee, is required by 37 U.S.C. 412, and 5 U.S.C. 4110 and 4111.

E2.1.1.5. Develop, establish, and maintain an active and continuing Records Management Program, pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 3102 and DoD Directive 5015.2.

E2.1.1.6. Utilize the Government purchase card for making micropurchases of material and services, other than personal services, for the PFPA when it is determined more advantageous and consistent with the best interests of the Government.

E2.1.1.7. Authorize the publication of advertisements, notices, or proposals in newspapers, magazines, or other public periodicals, as required for the effective administration and operation of the PFPA, consistent with 44 U.S.C. 3702.

E2.1.1.8. Establish and maintain, for the functions assigned, an appropriate publications system for the promulgation of common supply and service regulations, instructions, and reference documents, and changes thereto, pursuant to the policies and procedures prescribed in DoD 5025.1-M.

E2.1.1.9. Enter into support and service agreements with the Military Departments, other DoD Components, or other Federal Government Agencies, as required, for the effective performance of PFPA functions and responsibilities.

E2.1.1.10. Enter into and administer contracts, through WHS, or a Military Department, a DoD contract administration services component, or other Federal Agency, as appropriate, for supplies, equipment, and services required to accomplish the mission of the PFPA.

E2.1.1.11. Establish and maintain appropriate property accounts for the PFPA and appoint Boards of Survey, approve reports of survey, relieve personal liability, and drop accountability for PFPA property contained in the authorized property accounts that has been lost, damaged, stolen, destroyed, or otherwise rendered unserviceable, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

E2.1.1.12. Promulgate the necessary security regulations for the protection of property and places under the jurisdiction of the Director, PFPA, pursuant to DoD Directive 5200.8.

E2.1.1.13. Exercise, with respect to force protection, security, and law enforcement at Pentagon Facilities, the authorities of the Secretary of Defense under 10 U.S.C. 2674 and those authorities vested in the Secretary of Defense, or delegated to the Secretary of Defense by the Administrator of the General Services, under title 40 U.S.C.

E2.1.2. The Director, PFPA may redelegate these authorities as appropriate, and in writing, except as otherwise specifically indicated above or as otherwise provided by law or regulation.
