

Department of Defense INSTRUCTION

NUMBER 1348.34

September 13, 1989

Administrative Reissuance Incorporating Through Change 2, July 24, 1990

SUBJECT: Presidential Recognition on Retirement from Military Service

References: (a) White House Memorandum, "Appreciation Certificates for Military Retirements," March 2, 1989

1. PURPOSE

This Instruction implements reference (a) by establishing policy, assigning responsibilities, and prescribing procedures for conveying the appreciation of the President to members of the Armed Forces on their retirement.

2. APPLICABILITY

This Instruction applies to the Military Departments and the members of the Active and Reserve forces, and by agreement with the Department of Transportation, the U.S. Coast Guard.

3. POLICY

It is DoD policy that a "Certificate of Appreciation for Service in the Armed Forces of the United States" (DD) Form 2542, enclosure 1) shall be presented to each member retiring from the Armed Forces after serving 20 or more years and attaining eligibility to receive retired pay. (Members of the Reserve components will be presented this certificate upon their transfer to the Retired Reserve.) In addition, letters of appreciation, signed by the President, shall be presented to selected personnel specified in this Instruction.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1. The Assistant Secretary of Defense (Force Management and Personnel) (ASD(FM&P)) shall exercise oversight over the Military Departments and the U.S. Coast Guard for compliance with this Instruction.

4.2. The Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Commandant of the U.S. Coast Guard shall ensure compliance with the policies and procedures in this Instruction.

5. PROCEDURES

5.1. Certificates of Appreciation

5.1.1. A "Certificate of Appreciation for Service in the Armed Forces of the United States" bearing the signature of the President, as Commander in Chief, has been established for extending the Nation's appreciation to those who are retiring after honorable service in the Armed Forces.

5.1.2. A "Certificate of Appreciation for Service in the Armed Forces of the United States" shall be appropriately completed with name, rank, and Military Service and shall be presented at the time of the Service member's retirement from the Military Service, in accordance with section 3., above.

NOTE: "DD Form 2542" shall not appear on the actual certificate.

5.1.3. The certificate is an expression of gratitude to the individual for military service and is not intended to have any legal effect on entitlements or benefits. Accordingly, a copy of the certificate or a notation that the Service member has received the certificate shall not be made a part of the Service member's permanent military record.

5.1.4. Military Departments shall present certificates of appreciation to all Service members retiring on or after October 1, 1989. Military Departments shall present certificates of appreciation to Service members who retire between January 20, 1989 and September 30, 1989 on request from the Service member as soon as possible after the certificates become available.

5.2. Letters of Appreciation

5.2.1. In addition to certificates, the following personnel shall receive standard letters of appreciation prepared by the White House Military Office (WHMO) and signed by the President:

5.2.1.1. Those Service members retiring with at least 30 years of military service. Members of the National Guard must have served 30 years of creditable service for retired pay purposes in order to qualify for a retirement letter from the President.

5.2.1.2. The Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS) and the Chiefs of Staff of the Military Services, on retirement.

5.2.1.3. The senior enlisted member from each Military Service, on retirement.

5.2.1.4. Recipients of the Medal of Honor, on retirement.

5.2.1.5. Former prisoners of war (POWs), on retirement, who qualify for or have been awarded the POW Medal.

5.2.2. The Military Departments shall request those letters through their White House liaison officer and provide the information necessary to complete the letter using the format in enclosure 2.

5.2.3. As is the case with certificates, retroactive letters of appreciation shall also be prepared, on request, for Service members who retire between January 20 and September 30, 1989. Presidential retirement letters should be requested in advance of actual retirement, but will be processed up to 60 days after retirement.

6. EFFECTIVE DATE AND IMPLEMENTATION

This Instruction is effective immediately. Forward one copy of implementing documents to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Force Management and Personnel) within 60 days.
