WESTERN NEW ENGLAND UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL of LAW

The Increasing Application of Criminal Law in Accidents and Disasters

Professor Binder has been involved with infrastructure, emergency planning, and disaster liability issues since 1976. He has served as a consultant to a variety of organizations, ranging from the Army Corps of Engineers to Cesar Chavez and the United Farm Workers. In September 1996, Professor Binder received the National Award of Merit from the Association of State Dam Safety Officials for his contributions to promoting dam safety over the preceding two decades. Professor Binder served as the president of the Chapman University Faculty Senate during the 2006-2007 academic year and as chair of the Environmental Law Section of the Association of American Law Schools for 2011-2012.

Professor Binder has been teaching law for 43 years, with 18 of them at the Western New England University School of Law. His teaching specialties include Antitrust, Environmental Law, Torts, and Toxic Torts.

The Clason Speaker Series presents expert lectures to the School of Law. The series is named after Charles R. Clason, a prominent local attorney and member of the U.S. House of Representatives, who held the position of Dean of the School of Law from 1954 to 1970. Today, the purpose of the Charles and Emma Clason Endowment Fund is to host speakers who will enhance the academic environment of the School of Law at the University.
